MUSICAL NOTES

Johann Pachelbel (composer of the famous Canon in D) lived and worked in southern Germany and Austria in the second half of the seventeenth century. His Partitas (or variation-sets) on German chorale-melodies were a model for other composers, including the young J.S. Bach. Today's Prelude is based on a slightly different form of our Hymn 295, Sing praise to our Creator, presented in a variety of textural and figural guises.

The Organ Artists Series of Pittsburgh presents the young American organist Katelyn Emerson in recital this afternoon at Shadyside Presbyterian Church at 3 p.m. She is the first-prize winner of the American Guild of Organists' 2016 national organ-playing competition. Her program includes music by de Grigny, Mozart, Rheinberger, Tournemire, Vierne, and Duruflé. Tickets are $12 (students free with ID), and are available at the door; the church is at the corner of Amberson Avenue and Westminster Place in Shadyside.

MUSICAL NOTES

Johann Pachelbel (composer of the famous Canon in D) lived and worked in southern Germany and Austria in the second half of the seventeenth century. His Partitas (or variation-sets) on German chorale-melodies were a model for other composers, including the young J.S. Bach. Today's Prelude is based on a slightly different form of our Hymn 295, Sing praise to our Creator, presented in a variety of textural and figural guises.

Peter Hallock (1924-2014) was the Organist and Choirmaster of St. Mark's Cathedral, Seattle, for forty years; there he developed a highly influential music-ministry, which included many of his own compositions. His setting of the Easter canticle Christ our Passover in a simple chant-style with a syncopated metrical refrain, illustrates his creative fusion of styles old and new.

Jacques-Nicolas Lemmens (1823-81) was a Belgian organist, composer, and pedagogue, largely credited with bringing Bach-influenced organ techniques west of the Rhine. The Fanfare (which is reminiscent of a number of 19th-century Toccatas by various French composers) is probably his best-known work.

The Organ Artists Series of Pittsburgh presents the young American organist Katelyn Emerson in recital this afternoon at Shadyside Presbyterian Church at 3 p.m. She is the first-prize winner of the American Guild of Organists' 2016 national organ-playing competition. Her program includes music by de Grigny, Mozart, Rheinberger, Tournemire, Vierne, and Duruflé. Tickets are $12 (students free with ID), and are available at the door; the church is at the corner of Amberson Avenue and Westminster Place in Shadyside.

Welcome

NEWCOMERS AND GUESTS are always welcome at Calvary Church. Our service uses the three books located in the pew: The Book of Common Prayer, The Hymnal 1982, and Lift Every Voice and Sing. Directions in the service bulletin indicate where it is customary to stand or kneel. We invite you to participate as you are able. We hope you will take a moment to read and complete the Welcome Card in the pew, and place it in the offertory plate as it passes.

CHILDREN OF ALL AGES are welcome in worship services. Packets of materials for children are available from the ushers. Nursery Care is available during the 9 a.m. and the 11 a.m. services. The Infants' and Toddlers' Nursery is downstairs on the Christian Education level.

WEEKLY OFFERING CARDS that say "My gift comes electronically or by mail" can serve as a visible sign of your gift. Look for the purple cards in a basket in the Narthex or by the North Transept door each week, take one, and place it in the offering plate.

Sheldon Calvary Camp in Pittsburgh

Calvary Church will host a Sheldon Calvary Camp service on the fourth Sunday of each month. All are invited on Sunday, April 22 at 3 p.m. for an informal celebration of the Holy Eucharist, led by The Rev. Leslie Reimer, with music from the camp songbook. We will meet in the Refectory.

Spiritual Reflection – Meeting Merton

For the Spring quarter, we continue to use Thomas Merton as our guide. Thomas Merton (1915–1968) was a social activist and student of comparative religion, and wrote poetry, essays and books on spirituality, social justice and a quiet pacifism. At each meeting we will use for reflection and discussion a short passage by or about Merton.

Meetings will be held 7-8 p.m. on the first and third Tuesday evening of each month. The four meetings this quarter are scheduled for April 17, May 1 and 15, and June 5. Email Matt Muldoon (mattmuldoon@msn.com) or Sondra Krimmel (sskrimmel@gmail.com) for more information or to be added to the email list. Please feel welcome to join at any time.

Red Geraniums for Pentecost

Would you like to donate red geranium plants in honor or memory of your loved ones for Pentecost, Sunday, May 20, 2018? As is the tradition, the plants will be in the front of the rood screen for the services and then planted in the Calvary gardens. With your donation of $10, you will be able to buy two geraniums. You may take one home to be planted there or opt to have both planted at Calvary. Please complete the insert available from the tract racks and Sunday service bulletins. The deadline for orders is Monday, May 14.

Soup Group News

Thanks to the Women of Calvary there are two new stoves in the kitchen. We tried them out in April, and we were delighted with their efficiency. Next time you pass by the kitchen, take a look. The Soup Group will cook again on Friday, May 18 at 10 a.m. in Calvary's kitchen. We welcome new cooks, new recipes, and we encourage everyone to take Calvary's soup to a friend, neighbor or relative. The soup is located in the freezer in the pantry. Spread the cheer! –Adele Eley, adele.eley@gmail.com, 412.371.6921

Calvary Movie Night: Thursday, April 26

SUSAN SARANDON SEAN PENN
A FILM BY TIM ROBBINS

DEAD MAN WALKING

A powerful drama based on the true story of a nun in Louisiana who becomes the spiritual advisor to a death row inmate (Sean Penn), convicted of the murder of two young adults and awaiting execution. As she tries to redeem his soul, she must also reconcile his needs with the heinousness of his crime and the grief of the murdered children's parents. Strong performances by Susan Sarandon, who won the 1995 Oscar for her role, and Sean Penn anchor this sobering story which, despite the humanizing of its central character, is not a simple pro- or anti-death penalty treatise.

Come for a salad supper (prepare for 2) in the Refectory (at 6 p.m.). The film starts promptly at 7 p.m. followed by a brief discussion led by Clint Van Dusen, in the Parish Hall. Please contact Clint by email apax4cmvd@msn.com or call 412.427.8933 to reserve a spot.

The Day of Pentecost: May 20

Holy Baptism at the 11 o'clock service.
Strawberries and Ice Cream
will be served after the 11 o'clock service.
Everyone is encouraged to wear red on that day.

On Pentecost, Calvary Church has the custom of reading the Gospel of the day simultaneously in as many languages as possible. The sound of many languages recalls for us the experience of the disciples and the crowd on that first Pentecost following the Resurrection. We invite anyone who knows a language other than English to read the Gospel in that language at the 9 a.m. or 11 a.m. services. When the Gospel is announced, all will begin to read at the same time in their various languages. (Even if you are a bit shy or not overly confident of perfect pronunciation, you can add your voice to the mix.) Translations of the Bible text in many languages are available at www.bibledatabase.net. The Gospel reading for Pentecost is from the Gospel of John, chapter 15, verses 26-27; 16:4b-15. Thank you for helping us celebrate this festival of the Holy Spirit!!

The Third Sunday of Easter

April 15, 2018

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles {3:12-19}

When Peter saw the astonishment of those who had seen the lame man healed, he addressed the people, "You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you. And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out."

Reader: The Word of the LORD.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 4

- 1 Answer me when I call, O God, defender of my cause; *
you set me free when I am hard-pressed;
have mercy on me and hear my prayer.
- 2 "You mortals, how long will you dishonor my glory; *
how long will you worship dumb idols
and run after false gods?"
- 3 Know that the LORD does wonders for the faithful; *
when I call upon the LORD, he will hear me.
- 4 Tremble, then, and do not sin; *
speak to your heart in silence upon your bed.
- 5 Offer the appointed sacrifices *
and put your trust in the LORD.
- 6 Many are saying,
"Oh, that we might see better times!" *
Lift up the light of your countenance upon us, O LORD.

- 7 You have put gladness in my heart, *
more than when grain and wine and oil increase.
- 8 I lie down in peace; at once I fall asleep; *
for only you, LORD, make me dwell in safety.
- Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the First Letter of John [3:1-7]

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

Reader: The Word of the LORD.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke [24:36b-48]

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, LORD Christ.

While the disciples were telling how they had seen Jesus risen from the dead, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence. Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you – that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, LORD Christ.
